EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

The Washington State Society of Anesthesiologists (WSSA) is a 975⁺ member organization dedicated to advancing the science and art of anesthesiology, and stimulating interest and promoting progress in the specialty. The British Columbia Anesthesiologists' Society (BCAS) is the voluntary representative body for the more than 300 practicing anesthesiologists in the province of British Columbia.

The annual Joint Scientific Meeting provides exhibitors an intimate setting in which to have personal interaction with approximately 200 anesthesiologists from throughout Washington State and British Columbia. To ensure maximum traffic, the breakfast and coffee breaks are located in the exhibit area.

Registered exhibitors will be listed in the conference program book and WSSA website with a link to their company's website. A pre-registration list will be provided at the meeting, and an electronic list of postal mailing addresses will be provided following the meeting.
